DEDICATION

Stephen W. Carmichael, Ph.D.

Among all the people one meets during medical school some stand out and impress you due to their excellence and to the excellence that they demand from you. Dr. Stephen Carmichael is one such person. He taught us that excellence in anatomy is the only acceptable level. In this course all students, whether they liked or disliked him, recognized that Dr. Carmichael showed great ability and concern.

Dr. Carmichael's skills in teaching are closely paralleled by his deep interest in student affairs. He has served us as an advisor, a teacher, and a friend. We the class of 1979 in appreciation would like to dedicate this book to him with thanks and in the hope that the example he sets will continue to influence both students and faculty.

ALPHA OMEGA ALPHA

75 years ago, six medical students at the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Chicago organized an honorary medical society to recognize excellence in their peers and teachers. Thus Alpha Omega Alpha was born, with the expressed purpose of "... promotion of scholarship and research in medical schools, the encouragement of a high standard of character and conduct among medical students and graduates, and the recognition of high attainment in medical science, practice, and related fields". AOA membership of the West Virginia University School of Medicine constitutes those students and faculty who have distinguished themselves in the pursuit of their medical education, or who have attained leadership in the medical profession. 3 GOOD, SOUND REASONS TO JOIN THE AMA

1 Effective Representation

There may have been times when you've encountered problems with your institution, or you've wanted to see changes or improvements in your curriculum, or in patient care, or in health care delivery. But where could you go for help with your problem or to get a hearing for your ideas? There really wasn't any place. But now there is: The AMA Student Business Section (SBS). It is your representative assembly through which the AMA and its resources are directed to the problems you and your colleagues wish to have addressed. Through the SBS, students have direct input and participation in AMA policy-making.

2 Membership Benefits

Your membership provides a broad range of professional as well as personal benefits. Those of particular importance are:

- JAMA, American Medical News, and one of nine specialty journals
- Low-cost insurance programs—group life, excess major medical, disability, accidental death and dismemberment, and supplement in-hospital insurance

- AMA Physicians' Placement Service
- Starting your practice workshops, negotiations seminars

3 Special Dues

Recognizing the financial burdens you already carry, the AMA established special reduced membership dues. Students may join for only $15. (Regular AMA dues are $250.) Join today. The AMA needs and wants your membership, input, and participation.
